<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • QPR and suicide prevention strategies • Anti-Stigma & Mental Illness Awareness Week October 7-13th, 2012 	advisor! They will be available for 4 hrs/week for 6 weeks. Please refer to excerpt below from August minutes: Gail proposed using AHEC interns to further develop and perform a media and presentation campaign re: mental health anti-stigma that could be utilized for the awareness week project, as well as future promos (such as May-Mental Health month/New video, etc). Potential is there for increased exposure via social media (Facebook!) and TV/radio ads, and community event(s). Could be groundwork for future AHEC intern projects in the spring, etc. QPR Trainers: Nancy Dewitt has expressed interest in training. Current trainers are Tracy Bellman of The Human Service Center and Jessica Sheik of Ministry/Koller Behavioral Health. RHS have own DPI curriculum of a similar suicide prevention program, but she will address this with school administration for interest. Historically, has been difficult to have group. Not discussed.	advisor for their project(s)—a person to send materials to, etc. Please contact Gail Nelson if interested. Plan: discuss at next MHIAC meeting Notify group of any veteran support groups in existence. Vets: check with Tammy Walters and LDF & Minocqua area - Char RHS: Jaye- need for QPR Trainer? Char will put out an article in OCHD website blog. May contact
