The U.S. Department of Agriculture prohibits discrimination against its customers, employees, and applicants for employment on the bases of race, color, national origin, age, disability, sex, gender identity, religion, reprisal, and where applicable, political beliefs, marital status, familial or parental status, sexual orientation, or all or part of an individual’s income is derived from any public assistance program, or protected genetic information in employment or in any program or activity conducted or funded by the Department. (Not all prohibited bases will apply to all programs and/or employment activities.) If you wish to file a Civil Rights program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, found online at http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html, or at any USDA office, or call (866) 632-9992 to request the form. You may also write a letter containing all of the information requested in the form. Send your completed complaint form or letter to us by mail at U.S. Department of Agriculture, Director, Office of Adjudication, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, by fax (202) 690-7442 or email at program.intake@usda.gov. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339; or (800) 845-6136 (Spanish). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
Your WIC Breastfeeding Peer Counselor will:

- listen to you and encourage you
- share current information with you
- respect your wishes and help you meet your goals
- see you at WIC and talk with you on the phone or by text or email
- answer your questions and concerns
- connect you with other moms and groups
- arrange for you to see a breastfeeding expert, if needed
- help you understand your baby's sleep, cues and crying

“Thank you for your help and support when Autumn and I were learning to breastfeed. Your patience and direction were so helpful. Because of you Autumn and I are doing wonderful and nursing strong.”
